

Accessing Primary Care in Nova Scotia - June 2023

Improving access to primary care is part of Action for Health, the government's broader plan to improve healthcare.

Actions have been taken to improve access province-wide, to develop options that match the needs of communities and to provide additional supports for people on the Need a Family Practice Registry.

In May 2023

1,445 Visits were completed at Mobile Primary Care Clinics

5,679 Visits were completed at Urgent Treatment Centres

424 Visits were completed at Urgent Care Centres

5,928 Visits were completed through VirtualCareNS

5,374 Visits were completed at Primary Care Clinics

7,061 Visits were completed at Community Pharmacy Primary Care Clinics

22,991 Primary care services were completed at Community Pharmacies

1,523 Visits were completed at Pharmacy+ Clinics

50,425 Total visits/services were completed across all Primary Care locations

As of Jun 1, 2023

64,463 Nova Scotians have registered for VirtualCareNS

Select a service from the menu bar for more information on each service:

Mobile Primary Care Clinics

Mobile Primary Care Clinics

Mobile Primary Care Clinics were launched in September 2022 to help bridge the gap in primary care services. They are set up in communities around the province to provide care to anyone with mild or moderate health concerns.

For more information, visit nshealth.ca/mobileprimarycareclinics

Urgent Treatment Centres

Urgent Care Centres

VirtualCareNS

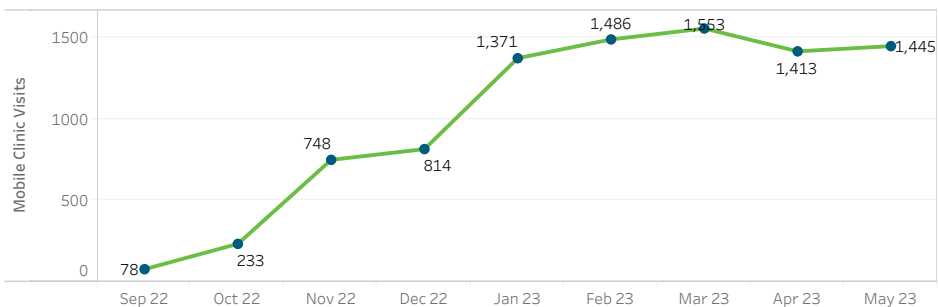

Primary Care Clinics

Community Pharmacies

Community Pharmacy PCCs

Pharmacy+

Mobile Clinic Visits Trend

Mobile Clinic Visits - May 2023

